

Alison Works Hard

by Adrienne Mikovic

Alison came home from school. She was tired! But Alison had special jobs to help around the house before she could rest.

First, Alison fed the dog. She did that every day after school. Then she picked up her toys. She put her shoes in her dresser.

Alison's dad came home from work. He took off his shoes. With a sigh, he plopped onto the sofa.

After Alison set the table for dinner, she climbed onto the sofa next to Dad. "What's wrong, Daddy?" asked Alison.

"I had a very hard day at work," said Dad.

"Then why don't you stay home tomorrow?" she asked.

Dad pulled Alison onto his lap. "God gave me this job, Alison. He uses my job to help our family pay for the house, the car, and a house to live in. Jobs aren't always fun, but we need to do them. God will help us if we ask Him to."

Dad looked around the house. "It looks like you have worked hard today too. Thank you for doing your jobs."

Dad gave Alison a hug. She was glad God would give her and her dad strength to do their jobs again tomorrow.
